nei them of the factilist Mains In torate position time advantate impairments of their course, Weikerelley's convention of Augusta will set all doubts at rest. When the Democratic pushy mentales legs than four bandral delegates in a State Colores tion it is easy to see that the party schalls defeat in advance. Not only was the concalities really furnished the delegates.

sulously smell, but Bangur, Lugasta and one or two of the central lethere was no attempt to arrange the delegation by counties as then the farce would have been too apparent. The linears men captured the conv tion such as it was and tacked their plank on the platform. The Committee on Cre-lientials reported 385 delegates in attend-ance, but when the ballot on the license plank was taken but 145 votes were cast, 45 for and 99 against. Thus we have the smasing spectacle of 244 men undoing the work of a convention at which 616 delefates were reported present. As to the effect of this action upon the fortunes of the party there appears to be very little difference of opinion. Mr. Henry Hud-

on, for instance, declared that it was

"gommitting political enicide," while Mr. Leary Clifford thought such a fale wight rable to a "linguring death." Such as I is the victory is with the passervial and it will now be interesting b note how the majority of the Demo He papers, who have opposed the lid will take this inivocity ection. They will be obliged to turn a sault or repudiate the star performance at Angusta, Weenstday, but a cities care the party now stands com-ultted to a license campaign. The nomnation is in keeping with the platform. Indeed the chief and principal argument hat has been made in favor of Mr. Thomp on in that he is a license main. Outside of Waldo County we do not imagine there are being denen of people in the State who yer heard of him before. He was willing nd as a figure head on a platform r pullished not only by a majority of the party but by its late candidate and that such for the handful of seen who Constituted Wednesday's citives biforms can and will view the work of this convention with the utmost satisfaction, both as regards the platform and the nomination made. The issue alhough forcest upon the Democracy by a enall colocyly is nevertheless binding and at laune is one that the Republicans are always ready to test before the people. Whenever Maine has been called upon we meet this question the prohibitory law has invariably received the cordial approval of the people. This year will be no exc tlenite the rule and Gov. The Election bill passed the House Weintship by a vote of 155 to 149, a ma-jerty of six. A number of Republicans Were absent and three noted with the Destcerata, two from the South and one from New Jersey. This constituted the great break predicted in the Republican ranks Whenever the vote was taken. The Re-Públicans almost to a man stood as firm as a rock for honest elections and in solte of Democratic efforts schieved a grand

At no time has the necessity for this law been more fully appreciated by the people then now after 'reading the Demo-Cratic argument, or rather what has been put forth as argument, against the passare of this bill. No serious attempt was 'made to refute the perrible arraignment of Southern election methods because refuation was impossible. Indeed the Southire Bourbons had to admit the truth of the indictment and openly and defeatly declared on the fiber of Congress that the law never should be enforced. Why? The very opposition to anything fits a sorutiny of their elec-tion methods shows that the Scattians representatives understand that they will not how extinuousles. Watter had been told in pints paid there that it was upon the shall of Hantmann that the success of the manufactory chiefly depended.

"What is he doing here in such a gulse?" murmured Watter. "He has the air rather of searching for some outlet than of making discoverate; yet there is no surprise or treachery that I ought now to be prepared for; there is no surprise or treachery that I ought now to be prepared for; there is no telling what he may stamble upon by accident, if not by dong it. I must not let him get out of my night for a moment."

He stole along at a distance, beeping a parallel course to that of the visitor, while screening himself behind intervening obstacks.

Shortly after eleven o clock last night

This stenc in human shape is evidently one well acquainted with the show, for not only has he exhibited a familiarity with the locks and hars of the cages, but he selected the tay and hour when the supervision of the yand hour when the supervision of the submit was most relaxed. He appears to have made good his comparitud restraint, and so the four employes, who slept on the premises, have all failed victims to the freecky of the wild beasts. It is impossible to say at present if his kinnity of known.

If you what we can gather, the four main lious, Pasha, Abdul, Caliphand Riustapha, appor discovering the door of their cage open, immediately proceeded to the stables, where the large Hou, Pasha, leaped on to the back of Morat, the jumping horse, and fastened his tooth in his neck and withers. It is reported that he has always borne this barks of morat, the jumping horse, and fastened his tooth in his neck and withers.
